

From Poverty to Life Chances and back to Destitution

a public lecture by

Frank Field MP

Frank Field has been the Labour Member of Parliament for Birkenhead since 1979. He is a long-time campaigner on poverty, low-pay, and welfare, often seeking radical solutions to complex problems. He has served in government and chaired numerous reviews and Select Committees. In 2010 Frank chaired an Independent Review on Poverty and Life Chances and now chairs the Foundation Years Trust to implement the Review's main findings on how to prevent poor children becoming poor adults.

Where: The Catholic Chaplaincy, Old Palace, Rose Place, 85-87 St Aldate's Oxford OX1 1RD

When: 5.00-6.30pm, Thursday, 19th October 2017

Booking: www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/from-poverty-to-life-chances-and-back-to-destitution-frank-field-mp-tickets-38001095299

Co-sponsored by CEME (Centre for Enterprise, Markets and Ethics) and the Las Casas Institute for Social Justice

LasCasasInstitute.org
theceme.org

